

Use of Copyright Material Forbidden Without Release

Using copyrighted images, video clips or music is forbidden unless the creator of the piece has express written permission and can provide that upon request to SchoolTube.

With music there are a number of ways to include music in you work without violating copyright laws. Garage Band can be sued to students to create original music to include in their work.

Music that is not governed by a copyright may be used. This could be music for which the copyright has expired or it could be “royalty free” music that you school or school district has purchased for your use.

To find out more about these royalty free music please sources please visit the following:
<http://www.soundzabound.com> or <http://www.freeplaymusic.com>.